2022 Women of Distinction Award Nomination Form

Girl Scouts of Northeastern New York is accepting nominations for its 2022 Women of Distinction awards. If you know a woman in Clinton, Essex, Franklin, or northern Hamilton Counties whose excellence and dedication make them an ideal role model for both Girls and women alike, please nominate them! To nominate a deserving candidate, review the categories available for nomination and complete the attached application detailing the nominee's influence and achievements, as well as any relevant awards and accomplishments.

Nomination Categories:

Distinguished Trailblazer

This award honors a woman who has a proven track record of reaching ambitious or unconventional goals demonstrated by upward career mobility, steady growth and leadership skills. She is willing to take risks, inspires and motivates others. She has "broken glass ceilings," overcome and excelled under extreme challenges and demonstrated perseverance.

Distinguished Leader of Tomorrow (age 17-21)

This award will be presented to a young woman who has demonstrated outstanding leadership ability and has contributed to her school and community. She has spearheaded a project or program to improve quality of life. Preference is given to a young woman who is/was a Girl Scout.

Distinguished Personal Achievement

This award honors a woman who lives her life in such a way to serve others, both through her career and volunteer activities. She is a leader and an inspiration to others in all aspects of her life. She is willing to take risks and pursue activities that she believes in. It is by her example that others are motivated to take action.

Distinguished Community Leader

This award will be given to a woman who has demonstrated outstanding contributions over a period of time to her community. She is a role model, community leader, mentor, or has broken new ground. She is an agent for change who has made a measurable difference to those around her.

Nominations are due December 31, 2021.
